The National Motor Vehicle Title Information System (NMVTIS) is an electronic system that contains information to serve as a reliable source of title and brand (https://www.vehiclehistory.gov/nmvtis\_glossary.html) history for a vehicle's repair history.

All states, insurance companies, and junk and salvage yards are required by federal law to regularly report information on all motor vehicles in the United States because some states (https://www.vehiclehistory.gov/nmvtis\_states.html) send data provided to NMVTIS by states is provided in a variety of time frames; while some states report and update NMVTIS data less frequently, such as once every 24 hours or within a period of days. Information on previous, significant damage to a vehicle was never determined by an insurance company (or other appropriate entity) to be a "total loss" or brand damaged. NMVTIS is required to report a "total loss" even if the vehicle's titling-state has not determined the vehicle to be "salvage" or "total loss".

A vehicle history report is NOT a substitute for an independent vehicle inspection. Before making a decision to purchase a vehicle, consumers may wish to obtain an independent vehicle inspection. The Approved NMVTIS Data Provider (https://www.vehiclehistory.gov/nmvtis\_vehiclehistory.html) (look for the NMVTIS logo) can include vehicle condition information.
